Article II

The purpose of purposes for which the corporation is organized are to support and encourage better writing and publishing practices among Upper Peninsula, and surrounding area publishers and authors through meetings and workshops, special events, the internet, and similar means. The corporation is organized exclusively for the purpose of receiving and administering funds to promote the common business interest of its members as described in Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United Stated Internal Revenue Law)(the "Code"), and not to engage in a regular business of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit. Its activities are directed to the improvement of business conditions of one or more lines of business rather than the performance of particular services for individual persons.

- 1. Restrictions on operations
  - a. The corporation will at all times be conducted as an organization described in Section 501(c)(6) of the Code. The corporation will not carry on any activities which are not permitted to be carried on by
    - (1) A corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(6) the Code
    - (2) A nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Michigan
  - b. No part of the assets or the net earnings of the corporation may inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its nonprofit purposes.
- Dissolution and Disposition of Corporate Assets
   Upon the termination, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, the Board of Directors will distribute all remaining assets of the corporation for a purpose or to an organization or organizations described in 501(c)(6) of the Code.

Article VII

- Except as otherwise provided by law, a volunteer director or volunteer officer of the corporation is not personally liable to the corporation (or its members) for monetary damages for a breach of the director's or officer's fiduciary duty.
- The corporation assumes all liability to any person other than the corporation (or its members) for all acts or omissions of a volunteer director incurred in the good faith performance of his or her duties as a director.

Article VIII

The corporation assumes the liability for all acts or omissions of a volunteer officer, provided that:

- 1. The volunteer was acting or reasonably believed he or she was acting within the scope of his or her authority;
- The volunteer was acting in good faith;
- 3. The volunteer's conduct did not amount to gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct;
- 4. The volunteer's conduct was not an intentional tort; and
- The volunteer's conduct was not a tort arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of a motor vehicle as described in Section 209(e)(v) of the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act.
